5 MEMBERSHIP

5.1 Categories of Membership

ACAud will have eight categories of membership.

5.1.1 Honorary Fellow

This member is an individual who has been of extra-ordinary service to the field of Audiology in Australia or to ACAud. This is the highest honour that can be bestowed on an individual by ACAud. An Honorary Fellow may also be eligible for another category of membership but need not qualify in any other way for membership of ACAud.

5.1.2 Fellow

This member is an individual who has achieved the highest level of professional recognition in Australia. This person can be considered an expert or specialist in his field. There may be sub-categories of Fellowship in line with areas of specialist practice.

5.1.3 Fellow (Retired)

This member is an individual who has been admitted as a Fellow, who has subsequently retired from the workforce and who wishes to maintain contact with the profession.

5.1.4 Full Member

This member is an individual who is considered to have sufficient experience to be able to work independently.

5.1.5 Full Member (Retired)

This member is an individual who has been admitted as a Full Member for a minimum of ten years, or who became a member prior to 1 January 1997, who has subsequently retired from the workforce and who wishes to maintain contact with the profession.

5.1.6 Associate Member

This member is an individual who has had some formal training and who is not considered suitably qualified or experienced to work unsupervised in a clinical situation.

5.1.7 Student Member

This member is an individual who is enrolled in a recognised tertiary education course that leads to a qualification in hearing services.

5.1.8 Affiliate Member

This member is an individual who has an interest in audiology. An Affiliate Member must not be a practicing clinician.

5.2 Admission to Membership

ACAud will determine, by the development and regular review of membership policies and procedures, the manner of admission to membership.

5.3 Certificate of Membership

All Honorary Fellows, Fellows, Full Members and Service Members will be loaned a certificate indicating their membership status within ACAud. This certificate remains the property of ACAud and must be returned on lapse, resignation, or termination of membership.

5.4 Entitlement to Letters and Titles

5.4.1 Honorary Fellows are entitled to call themselves 'Honorary Fellow of ACAud' but are not entitled to any letters.

5.4.2 Fellows are entitled to call themselves 'Fellow of ACAud' and are entitled use the letters 'FACAud'.

5.4.3 Full Members are entitled to call themselves 'Member of ACAud' and are entitled to use the letters 'MACAud'.

5.5 Maintenance of Membership

ACAud may determine, through the implementation of policies and procedures, the conditions with which members may be required to comply to maintain membership.

5.6 Membership Subscriptions and Fees

5.6.1 All Membership Subscription and fees will be reviewed at the Annual General Meeting. The Board of Directors may establish any new fee necessary to the effective running of ACAud however any such fees must be ratified at the next Annual General Meeting

5.6.2 Setting of Membership Subscriptions and Fees

Membership subscriptions and Fees may be determined annually by motion at the Annual General Meeting by ordinary resolution. Such motion will apply to the subscriptions and fees for the following financial year. In the absence of such a motion at any Annual General Meeting the subscriptions and fees will remain the same as those determined for the current year.

5.6.3 Due date of Membership Subscriptions

Membership subscriptions become due on the date of application for membership and thereafter on the first day of each financial year.

5.6.4 Lapse of Membership

- 5.6.4.1 Any member who is in arrears with membership subscriptions forfeits all voting rights until such time as those arrears are paid.
- 5.6.4.2 A member's membership of ACAud automatically terminates if the member is 3 months in arrears of payment of the member's membership subscription fees.
- 5.6.4.3 A person or entity whose membership is terminated under clause 5.6.4.2 may reapply for membership of ACAud in the same category.
- 5.6.4.4 A person or entity who reapplies for membership under clause 5.6.4.3 is entitled to be automatically reinstated as a Member of ACAud if:
- a) the application is lodged with ACAud in the form approved by the Board of Directors from time to time; and
 - b) the application is lodged within 2 years of the date the person or entity's membership of ACAud was cancelled; and
 - c) the person or entity has, at all times since the date that the person or entity's membership of ACAud was cancelled, maintained all conditions of membership under clause 5.5 other than payment of membership subscriptions and application fees under clause 5.6; and
 - d) the person or entity pays:
 - i) all arrears of membership subscription fees owing to ACAud; and
 - ii) all membership application and subscription fees which would, but for the termination of membership, have been payable during the period from the date that membership was terminated under clause 5.6.4.2 until the date of reapplication for membership under clause 5.6.4.3.
- 5.6.4.5. For the avoidance of doubt, clause 5.6.4.3 relates to membership reinstatement only. A person or entity is not entitled to automatic reinstatement of any form of clinical certification issued by ACAud once the membership lapses or is terminated. The person or entity may reapply for clinical certification and must fulfill the requirements for clinical certification as determined by ACAud including where applicable, the resumption of practice policy as published and amended by ACAud from time to time. Clinical certification is separate to membership of ACAud.
- 5.6.4.6. If a person or entity who reapplies for membership under clause 5.6.4.3 is not entitled to be automatically reinstated as a member of ACAud under clause 5.6.4.4, the application must be treated as a new application for membership without regard to the person or entity's prior membership of ACAud.
- 5.6.4.7. Lapse of membership does not relieve the person or entity of any financial obligation incurred to ACAud while a member.
- 5.6.4.8. Each member acknowledges and agrees that, if the member's membership of ACAud is terminated under clause 5.6.4.2 ACAud may notify any relevant body of the termination without notifying or consulting the member.

5.7 Resignation of Membership

5.7.1 Any member may resign from ACAud by giving notice in writing to the Secretary.

5.7.2 Such resignation will not take effect until all certificates of membership and any other documents and certificates are returned, along with any monies that may have become owing to ACAud while a member.

5.8 Termination of Membership

5.8.1 A Member can have their membership revoked by a motion from the Board if a voting majority of 75% of all Board members is achieved.

5.8.2 Termination of membership does not relieve the person or entity of any financial obligation incurred to ACAud while a member.

5.9 Register of Members

The Secretary shall cause to be kept a register of all members.

5.10 Liability of Members

The liability of a member to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of ACAud or the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of ACAud, is limited to the amount, if any, of any unpaid financial obligation incurred to ACAud by that member.

5.11 Codes of Conduct and Disciplining of Members

5.11.1 ACAud may, by means of policies and procedures, determine any or all of Codes of Behaviour, Codes of Practice and Codes of Ethics with which members are expected to comply.

5.11.2 Where ACAud determines a Code of Conduct it will also determine penalties which may be imposed on members who breach that Code. These penalties may include fines, re-categorisation of membership, suspension of membership, termination of membership, warnings and requirements for re-examination.

5.11.3 Where ACAud determines penalties for breach of a Code of Conduct it shall also determine the procedures by which the breach may be assessed to have occurred, an appeal against such assessment may be heard, a penalty may be imposed and an appeal against such penalty may be heard.

any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among members of ACAud but if there exists another organisation or association in Australia or its territories with similar aim and objectives and which also prohibits the distribution of its property and income among its members, ACAud may resolve, by motion at the meeting at which it was decided to disband, to donate the remaining assets of ACAud to such organisation.

18.3 Revocation of Deductible Gift Recipients status

Without limiting clause 18.2, if ACAud is a Deductible Gift Recipient and is wound up or its endorsed as a Deductible Gift Recipient is revoked, and any property (including the following property) remains after satisfaction of all its liabilities, that the property must be given or transferred to other institutions who have similar objectives to ACAud that are Deductible Gift Recipients, which are charitable at law:

- (a) gifts of money or property for the principal purpose of ACAud;
- (b) contributions made in relation to an eligible fundraising event held for the principal purpose of ACAud; and
- (c) money received by ACAud because of such gifts and contributions.

19 READING THIS CONSTITUTION WITH THE CORPORATIONS ACT

19.1 The replaceable rules set out in the Corporations Act do not apply to the company.

19.2 The Corporations Act overrides any clause in this Constitution which is inconsistent with the Act.

20 A word or expression that is defined in the Corporations Act, or used in that Act and covering the same subject, has the same meaning as in this Constitution.

21 ACNC ENTITY

If ACAud is an ACNC Entity and a provision in this constitution is inconsistent with a law applicable to ACAud due to its registration as an ACNC Entity, the relevant law overrides the provision of this Constitution to the extent of any inconsistency.
